BREW REVIEW

CHEERS TO INDEPENDENCE

RAISE A GLASS. MAKE AN IMPACT.

AN EVENING BREWED FOR A PURPOSE.

The Creative Living Brew Review brings together friends, neighbors, businesses, and community partners for a relaxed evening of craft beverages, great food, and meaningful connection, all in support of a mission that has empowered independence in Columbus for more than 50 years.

Guests will enjoy tastings from local and regional breweries and beverage partners, delicious bites, fundraising activities, and plenty of opportunities to mix and mingle. Whether you're discovering a new favorite brew or connecting with others who believe in a more accessible community, every part of the evening helps advance Creative Living's mission.

Come for the brews. Leave knowing your night made a difference.

CHEERS TO INDEPENDENCE

Creative Living provides affordable, wheelchair-accessible housing for adults with physical disabilities alongside a unique 24/7 Resident Assistant Program. This combination of accessible housing, community, and on-call assistance gives residents the support they need to live independently while pursuing education, careers, relationships, and the lives they choose.

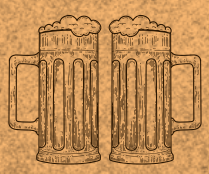

YOUR SPONSORSHIP AT WORK

Brew Review is more than a night out.

Proceeds from the event help Creative Living sustain the programs and services that make independence possible for residents, including our Resident Assistant Program and the community of support surrounding our two accessible housing communities.

EVERY POUR HAS A PURPOSE.

EVERY SPONSORSHIP HELPS SUPPORT INDEPENDENCE.

WHY SPONSOR BREW REVIEW?

Put your brand behind independence*!*

A Brew Review sponsorship gives your organization the opportunity to reach an engaged local audience while demonstrating your commitment to accessibility, inclusion, and independence.

Sponsors receive recognition before, during, and after the event through a combination of digital promotion, event signage, social media, email communications, and onsite visibility.

Your partnership does more than put your logo in the room. It puts your organization alongside a mission that has been changing what independent living can look like for more than five decades.
